

Teaching notes

In this episode, the presenter, Sophia interviews a group of secondary school students in London. They answer questions about their daily life, free time activities and jobs in the house.

Grammar present simple, regular and irregular verbs, adverbs of frequency

Vocabulary daily life, free time activities, jobs in the house

Before you watch

- 1 Warm up Write Free time on the board. Ask students to brainstorm what they do in their free time. Tell students to do Exercise 1 and then to circle the activities they do every day. Check answers and encourage students to add more activities to the list of ones they do.

While you watch

- 2 Play the introduction (00:14:36–0:14:51) while students circle the correct answer. Play the video again if students need more time to complete the exercises or to check answers.
- 3a Ask students to try to complete Sophie's questions before they watch. Then play the second part of the video (00:14:52–00:17:13) and check answers.
- 3b Ask students to try to match the names to the photos before they watch again. Then play the second part of the video again. Check answers with the whole class.
- 3c Ask students to read the questions in Exercise 3c and check they understand all of the activities. Then play the second part of the video again and check answers.

Optional activity

Say incorrect sentences about the speakers in the video. Students must correct your sentences using the table to form the correct information, e.g. 'Aderayo sleeps on Saturdays', 'That's not right, Aderayo visits her cousin on Saturdays'. Remind students to pay particular attention to the third person 's' when they correct your sentences.

4a and 4b Ask students to write their own responses to Sophia's questions from Exercise 3a. Then students ask and answer the questions in pairs. Ask some students to tell the class what they have discovered about their partner.

Optional activity

Tell students they must listen very carefully. Ask: 'What sports do you do?'. Each student repeats the previous answer and adds an activity of their own, e.g. 'Anna goes swimming, and I play football. Anna goes swimming, Carlo plays football, and I go running', etc. Remind students to pay attention to the third person 's'.
