

1 Read. Write true (T) or false (F).

- 1 They have got the tickets.
- 2 They have got four tents.

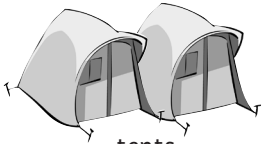

dictionary

euros

tickets

tents

campsite

guidebook

passports

map

rucksack

sleeping bags

debit card

To: Chris
From: Helen
Subject: Holiday

Chris,
Are you ready for the trip?
Have you got everything?
Mike and Mary have got two tents and four sleeping bags.
Oh, and they've got a map.
I've got the tickets and I've got my debit card, but have you got the euros?
Love from,
Helen

To: Helen
From: Chris
Subject: Re: Holiday

Helen,
Thanks for the email. Yes, I've got the euros. Have Mike and Mary got a big rucksack? Have you got a guidebook and dictionary?
Have you got the address of the campsite?
Have we all got our passports?
See you on Friday.
Love from,
Chris

2 Match the two parts of the words and write them.

1	ruck	port
2	pass	book
3	debit	site
4	guide	sack
5	camp	bag
6	sleeping	card

- 1 rucksack
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6

3 Rearrange the letters and write the holiday words.

leoth	migniwsm lopo
cbeha	naple
emraca	dicuorsynet

4 Look at the table.

have got (positive and question)

positive	question
I've got	Have I got?
You've got	Have you got?
We've got	Have we got?
You've got	Have you got?
They've got	Have they got?

5 Complete the sentences with the missing words. Use Exercise 1 to help you.

1 I've got the ...

2 Have you got the ... ?

3 Have we got our ... ?

4 Have they got a big ... ?

5 They've got a ...

6 We've got the ...

6 Rearrange the words to make sentences.

1 have / I / got / camera / a / .

2 the / tickets/ got / she / Has / ?

3 Have / dictionary / a / you / got ?