Live. Learn. Feel.
Join us on the journey to successful learning.

With so much going on in our classrooms we sometimes miss out on some of the essential skills required to be successful both academically and personally. In this session we will look at how implementing collaborative techniques can help our learners become both successful in English learning and provide them with some of the skills that will help them succeed in the modern world.

SPEAKERS

GEORGE HERITAGE joined Cambridge English in Madrid at the beginning of March 2016, after working in Cambridge for 3 years on a variety of exams. Prior to that, he taught a variety of levels and ages in Spain, Portugal and the UK for nearly ten years. He holds a degree in Spanish and Portuguese and a Cambridge English CELTA.

LUÍSA GEÃO started teaching in Belgium and Austria, after which she moved back to Portugal to start her editorial career. She worked in different areas of the business for publishers including Porto Editora, Pearson, and Oxford University Press. In May 2016, she moved to Madrid to join Cambridge Assessment English. Since 1st March 2017 she has been Country Manager, Portugal.

ANDREA TOLVE is currently Head of Teacher Training Iberia for Cambridge University Press and has been working in the ELT world since 1999. She has experience in teaching all levels and age groups in Zagreb and Madrid. She has a Master of Arts in Education (Applied Linguistics) with The Open University.

MARK MEREDITH began teaching English in Spain in 2010. He holds a Trinity DipTESOL and is currently working as a Teacher Trainer for Cambridge University Press. Since arriving in Spain he has taught primary and secondary students, future university students on pre-sessional courses and has run a variety of professional English courses for adults.
