Welcome to the Cambridge Day Murcia!

We kick off the event with Caroline Nixon, exploring aspects of academic, social, and cultural differences in the Primary classroom and how we can address these needs with an inclusive approach. Andrea Tolve will then go on to present dynamic strategies and techniques that encourage learners to participate in class, take an active role in their education and develop skills that go beyond learning an additional language.

Agenda

Speakers

Caroline Nixon

Caroline has been teaching English since 1983. She is the Director and Co-proprietor of a successful English school founded in 1989 in Murcia. With Michael Tomlinson, she has written Kid's Box, Life Adventures and Be Curious for Primary, and Pippa and Pop for Pre-Primary. Together, they have also written six titles in the Cambridge Copy Collection: Primary Activity Box, Primary Vocabulary Box, Primary Grammar Box, Primary Pronunciation Box, Primary Communication Box and Primary Reading Box. Caroline gives teacher-training talks and workshops internationally.

Andrea Tolve

Andrea is the Professional Learning and Development Manager for Cambridge University Press & Assessment Iberia (Spain and Portugal) and has been working in the ELT world since 1999. She has experience in teaching all levels and age groups in Zagreb and Madrid and has been involved in developing and delivering teacher training solutions for over a decade. She has a Master of Arts in Education (Applied Linguistics) with The Open University and is passionate about teacher training and development.
