When she was travelling last year my friend (1) me a long letter. She forgot to put a (2) on the (3), so I never got it! We usually (4) each other emails, but because she was travelling, she wanted to write instead. She sent me lots of (5) too, with pictures of amazing places on them.

Now that she's home again we've started emailing again. We also send each other (6) messages all the time. All my friends are on (7), but I don't like using social networking sites. I am probably the only person in the world who doesn't! Maybe it's because my whole family isn't very modern – my mum and dad haven't got (8) phones yet!

READING AND WRITING: A Swiss town

Choose the best word for each space.

Bern is the capital of Switzerland. This is a surprise to (1) many / more / much people as they think the capital is a bigger city – Zurich or Geneva! People in this part of Switzerland speak German.

Bern is a beautiful city and the old city is full of history. It (2) is / was / be first built (3) at / on / in 1191 and has many wonderful buildings. There are also (4) any / some / lots beautiful gardens. If you want to take a walk or just relax, you should (5) visit / to visit / visiting the Rose Garden. It does have roses, but there are lots of other flowers as well, and from the restaurant there is a beautiful view over the old town.

When you visit Bern you must see the Zytglogge, (6) any / a / one clock tower with models that move around. This has had an interesting history. The tower was built in the thirteenth century, (7) also / and / but was burned in a fire in 1405. (8) It / He / They was built again, this time in stone, but the clock broke and was only repaired 122 years later! In 1530, a new clock was made and the same one is still working today.
