

1 Complete the sentences with the comparative or superlative form of the correct adjective.

- We have to win this game – it's the most important match of the season.
(important / dangerous)
- I've put everything away and now my room is (tidy / messy)
- We had an old car before, but now we're going to buy a one.
(bad / new)
- It's to pass an exam if you study hard. (easy / tidy)
- Going to a match is watching it on TV. (important / exciting)
- Surfing is a sport than swimming. (useful / dangerous)
- I hate this CD. I think it's music I've ever heard! (bad / easy)

2 Compare the things in the sentences with the words in brackets.

- An elephant is much stronger than a horse.
(much / strong)
- A TV is a mobile phone.
(far / expensive)
- Grapes are usually strawberries. (a little / cheap)
- The marathon is a sprint.
(much / long)
- My brother is me.
(a bit / short)
- Dolphins are fish.
(a lot / intelligent)
- I can speak Spanish French. (much / good)

3 Rewrite the sentences using (not) as ... as.

- Mike is faster than Jack.
Jack isn't as fast as Mike
- A discus is heavier than a football.
A football
- Surfing the net is more interesting than watching TV.
Watching TV
- My aunt is taller than my mum.
My mum
- Russia is bigger than Germany.
Germany
- A basketball is bigger than a tennis ball.
A tennis ball
- Riding a bike is easier than riding a horse.
Riding a horse

4 Correct the mistakes.

- They practised hardly and they became a really good team.
..... They practised hard
- If you run fastly you'll get to the station in time.
.....
- The children were playing happily on the beach.
.....
- Don't eat your food too quick – you'll make yourself sick.
.....
- I can't hear you. Can you speak a bit more louder, please?
.....