

1 Complete the sentences. Use will or might and the verb in brackets.

- I'm sure Spain will win (win) the match tomorrow.
- It's possible that Dad (forget) to meet me at the station.
- I'm not sure, but I (see) you later.
- Maybe my sister (let) me use her new computer.
- I'm certain that Daniela (come) to the party.
- Perhaps we (go) skiing in the winter.

2 Circle the correct answer, a or b.

- I don't know, but there be some yoghurt in the fridge.
a might b might not
- It's the start of the holidays, so we be at school next week.
a might not b won't
- My mum's going out tonight. She said she be back until very late.
a might not b might
- The weather forecast isn't good for tomorrow. I think it rain.
a might not b might
- I definitely buy a new phone when I get some money.
a might b 'll
- Enzo: What are you doing after school?
Gina: I'm not sure, but I go to the café.
a 'll b might

3 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| 1 Where will you go on holiday | f |
| 2 I'll go to the supermarket | |
| 3 My dad will drive you to the station | |
| 4 Will your parents be angry | |
| 5 Who will you bring to the party | |
| 6 Tim will be tired in the morning | |
| 7 What will you watch tonight | |
| 8 We won't be able to see the film | |
- a if the match isn't on TV?
b if you don't pass your exams?
c if we don't go to the cinema.
d if we need some more food.
e if Jamie doesn't want to go?
f if you don't go to the beach?
g if you miss the last bus.
h if he doesn't go to sleep soon.

4 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first.

- If we don't feed the dog it'll be hungry.
The dog will be hungry unless we feed it.
- Unless we look after the planet, there will be more environmental problems.
There will be more environmental problems if the planet.
- If you don't wear a coat, you'll get very wet.
You'll get very wet unless a coat.
- I won't listen to music with you if you don't turn it down.
I won't listen to music with you unless down.