

1 Complete the sentences. Use will/won't and the verbs.

- Do you think it will rain (rain) tomorrow?
- I think I (go) to university when I finish school next year.
- the environment (change) in the future?
- Can you help me with this problem? It (not take) long.
- We think we (go) to Paris this summer on holiday.
- It's very hot in here. I think I (open) a window.
- Do you think the ice at the poles (continue) to melt?
- My sister (go) out late at night on her own. She doesn't like the dark.
- 'I'm really sorry, mum. I (do) it again.'

2 Complete the sentences. Use might / might (not) and the verbs.

- Don't use that knife! You might cut (cut) yourself.
- Do you think you (study) French next year?
- Marie says she (come) to the party on Saturday. She's not feeling well.
- A: Where are your parents?
B: I don't know. I think they (be) at the supermarket.
- If we run quickly, we (catch) the 10.15 train.
- You can come round at 10.00am but we (be) in.
- Be quiet! You (wake) the baby.
- Let's go to the cinema instead of the park today. It (rain) later.
- I think I (buy) a new computer next week. This one is very old now.

3 Complete the first conditional sentences. Use the words in brackets.

- If you go to the exhibition early, you won't have to queue (not have to / queue).
- If we go to Spain in the summer, (go to the beach / every day)
- If Pietro passes his exams, (go to university)
- If I buy a dog, (take it for a walk / every day)
- If my sister buys a car, (drive everywhere)
- If we go to New York in August, (not have a holiday / in the autumn)
- If you leave now, (not miss the train)

4 Circle the correct verbs.

- If Maria invites / will invite me to the party, I 'll go / go.
- If I will eat / eat too much chocolate, I get / 'll get fat.
- If you don't get up / won't get up now, you 'll be / are late for school.
- If there is / will be more pollution, there will be / are more health problems.
- If they drive / will drive to Barcelona, it 'll be / is cheaper than flying.
- If you will tell / tell anyone my secret, I 'll be / am very angry.
- If he gets / will get a job in a bank, he 'll earn / earns lots of money.
- If the ice at the poles melts / will melt, sea levels will go up / go up.