

1 Complete the sentences with too much, too many or not enough.

- I can't come to your house tonight. I've got*too much*..... homework.
- Joe's not coming to the concert with us. He hasn't got money for the ticket.
- I couldn't finish the test in time because there were questions.
- I don't feel very well now – I've eaten pizza.
- Can you go to the shop, please? We haven't got milk for the morning.
- We'll never get on the next bus. There are people waiting for it.
- You need to tidy your room. There's rubbish on the floor.

2 Correct the mistakes.

- You've bought another dress? You spend too many money on clothes.
.....too much money.....
- Oh no, we're too late! We haven't got not enough time to get to the station.
.....
- My school bag is so heavy – I've got too much books to carry.
.....
- Donna had to stand up on the bus because there wasn't enough seats.
.....
- I'm looking on the Internet but I can't enough find information.
.....
- Don't put too many sugar in my tea – I only like a little.
.....

3 Complete the sentences with will or be going to and the verbs in the box.

not buy	move	live	not stay carry	visit	be	bring

- We're going to move to Germany because my dad's got a job there.
- You've got a lot of bags – I some for you.
- Don't forget, we your grandparents on Sunday.
- there a lot of people at the concert, do you think?
- My parents a new car because they say we don't need one.
- Don't worry, I too late at the party.

4 Circle the correct answer, a or b.

- I start studying hard because I want to do well in my exams.
a 'll b 'm going to
- help me with the washing up, please?
a Are you going to b Will you
- My brother's saving up his money – he buy a motorbike.
a 's going to b 'll
- Let's meet outside the cinema. Don't worry, I be late.
a won't b 'm not going to
- I've decided I eat sweets or chocolate any more.
a 'm not going to b won't
- My mum start her new job on Monday.
a will b 's going to