

1

Choose the correct relative pronouns.
Sometimes there are two possible answers

- The girl that / who / where you were talking to is my cousin.
- I know a girl whose / who / which brother works with Johnny Depp.
- The Jones family, who / that / where live next door, are from Australia.
- I'd hate to live in a town where / which / that there's nothing to do.
- My bicycle, which / that / when I bought yesterday, has been stolen.
- I'm looking for the book that / which / where you lent me last week.
- That's the teacher who / that / which told me off for using my mobile.

2

Join the sentences using a relative clause.
Remember to use commas.

- I'm scared of bats. Bats aren't really dangerous.
.....I'm scared of bats, which aren't really dangerous......
- My brother is over two metres tall. He's terrified of mice.
.....
.....
- Tarantulas make good pets. Many people are scared of them.
.....
.....
- JK Rowling started out as a teacher. I love her books.
.....
.....
- Johnny Depp is my favourite actor. He's just made a new film.
.....
.....
- I've just come back from Berlin. I had a great time there.
.....
.....

3

Complete the sentences with a, the or Ø (nothing).

- Have you got a pen?
- Everybody loves music.
- I don't like music my brother listens to.
- My cousin works in hotel in centre of town. He's waiter.
- 500 years ago people believed that world was flat.
- I always spend my holidays by sea.
- We stayed in nice hotel. food was really good.
- I'm having party with few friends.
- It's most frightening film I've ever seen.

4

There are eight articles missing in the text.
Where are they? Correct the text.

When I was about eight I was bitten by ^a dog outside school. I remember that day very clearly. I was shouting at friend of mine, who was crossing street, when man walked past with huge dog. When dog heard noise he was frightened, so he bit me on my leg. Bite was quite deep and I had to go to hospital. I've been frightened of dogs ever since.