

1 Put the words in order to make indirect questions.

- Sam / wonder / is / where / I
I wonder where Sam is.
- knows / gone / where / nobody / Tania / has
.....
- long / I / take / wonder / will / how / us / it
.....
- don't / I / managed / to / know / he / how / pass
.....
- much / find / tickets / how / are / out / let's / the
.....
- message / like / know / sent / I'd / the /
to / who
.....

2 Rewrite the questions as indirect questions.

- Who's that girl?
I wonder who that girl is.
- What does he look like?
I don't know
- Why did Tom phone?
I wonder
- How often do the buses leave?
We should find out
- What does this word mean?
I can't remember
- How long will we have to wait?
I'd like to know

3 Rewrite the questions. Make them more polite.

- Whose is this mobile?
Do you know whose mobile this is?
- How many people have they invited to the party?
Do you know?
- Which platform does the London train leave from?
Could you tell me?
- Why did you and Greg fall out?
Can I ask you?
- Where can I get tickets for the concert?
Have you got any idea?
- Who should I ask about joining the orchestra?
Can you tell me?

4 Tick (✓) the correct sentences. Correct the wrong sentences.

- Could you tell me where can I get a ticket? ☒
where I can get
- Can you remember where I left my wallet? ☐
- I don't know exactly how much does it cost. ☐
- I wonder what will I be doing five years from now. ☐
- I've no idea why Lara got so cross this morning. ☐
- Have you found out when is the next meeting? ☐
- Do you know you what you're doing this evening? ☐