

1 Choose the correct answer: a, b, or c.

- We going to meet Dan this evening, but he can't make it.
a were b was c weren't
- She knew at that moment that she never see him again.
a wasn't b would c was
- They going to work with us on the project, but they have decided to pull out.
a would b weren't c were
- The studio announced that the new film be released the week before Christmas.
a was b were c would
- Didn't you say that you going to do that Arabic course?
a weren't b wouldn't c wasn't
- That afternoon we first saw the house where we live for the next few years.
a would b were c was

2 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------|
| 1 We were going | b |
| 2 She was going | |
| 3 He wasn't going | |
| 4 Were you really | |
| 5 How were they | |
| 6 I was going | |
-
- | |
|--|
| a to call me. She must have forgotten. |
| b on holiday to France, but we've decided to go to Italy instead. |
| c going to leave without telling us? What were you thinking? |
| d to take the job, but I've been having second thoughts. |
| e to come to the party, but he's just texted me to say he's changed his mind. |
| f ever going to set up a website? Neither of them know anything about computers. |

3 Circle the correct words.

- My brother was going to / would move to London, but he's decided not to.
- I was going / would to buy the guitar last week, but the shop had sold out of the Gibson Les Pauls.
- We were / weren't ever going to do it. I don't know what gave you the idea that we were.
- I wondered whether you would / were going to turn up.
- I'm surprised that you believed that you were / weren't going to win the competition. Nobody else gave you a chance, you know.
- They would / were going to go swimming this weekend. But they've decided to go see a movie instead.

4 Rewrite the sentences using was/were going to.

- She had been our plan to go on a safari in Kenya.
.....
She was going to go on a safari in Kenya.
- Our idea had been to watch the rugby match.
.....
- We had planned to visit my cousin that weekend.
.....
- Their idea had been to apply to universities in the US.
.....
- She had thought about buying a second-hand car.
.....
- His plan had been to work abroad for a year.
.....