A: Where was your grandmother born?

B: She was born in Poland.

A: Why did she move to England?

B: Because she wanted to study in an English university.

A: Did she finish her studies?

B: No, she didn't. She married my grandfather after only a year and stopped studying.

A: How many children did she have?

B: Two, both boys.

A: When were they born?

B: In 1972 and 1974.

2

A: How did the cat get up into the tree?

B: It climbed up, of course.

A: I'm very hot in this coat.

B: Take it off then.

A: I can't see very well. Can I switch on the light?

B: Yes, of course you can.

A: Please sit down on that chair.

B: I feel ill. Can I lie down on the sofa?

A: Yes, you can.

3

A: Who was Dorothy Stang?

B: She was an American woman who lived in Brazil.

A: Why did she move to Brazil?

B: Because she wanted to change her life and help poor people.

A: What did she do in Brazil?

B: She worked with small farmers and tried to protect the forest.

A: Did people like her?

B: Yes, but there were also a lot of people who didn't like her. They wanted to kill her.

A: How did she die?

B: Two gunmen killed her.

4

A: Do you remember your first day at school?

B: Yes, I do. I have very clear memories of that day.

A: Was your first teacher nice?

B: She was great! I'll never forget her.

A: She was a local hero, wasn't she? She walked to the North Pole alone when she was fifty.

B: Yes, there's a statue of her in the park.

A: That's a wonderful memorial.

B: Well, she was a very special person.
