- A: Do you want to play tennis tomorrow?
- B: It depends. What do you think the weather will be like?
- A: I don't know. Let's look at the weather forecast on the internet.
- B: Hmm. It says it 'll be hot, with temperatures of about 28°C. That's too hot to play tennis.
- A: Oh come on! Don't be such a wimp!
- B: What about the day after tomorrow?
- A: It says there 'll be a storm with thunder and lightning.
- B: Not tennis weather then. Last time we played it rained.
- A: It didn't rain heavily – it was just a shower.

- A: What are you good at?
- B: I can play the piano quite well. I'm not brilliant, but I practise a lot.
- A: I can play the guitar, but very badly!
- B: You can run fast. I'm much slower than you.
- A: Yes, and I can speak Spanish quite fluently.
- B: I can only understand Spanish if they speak very slowly.
- A: What else am I good at? I'm good at getting up late!
- B: Me too. I got up at 11 o'clock this morning

3

- A: Who's Serena Williams?
- B: She's a professional tennis player.
- A: When was she born?
- B: On September 26 1981.
- A: Where was she born?
- B: In Michigan in the U.S., but I think she lives in Florida now.
- A: When did she begin playing tennis?
- B: When she was five years old.
- A: Did she win the women's singles at Wimbledon in 2011?
- B: No, she didn't. But she's a great tennis player, and she's really cool!

- A: Why is Juliane Kopcke famous?
- B: Because she survived a plane crash in 1971.
- A: Why did the plane crash?
- B: Lightning hit it during a thunderstorm.
- A: Did anyone else survive the crash?
- B: No, she was the only person who survived. The other 91 people died.
- A: That's incredible! Did the plane crash near a village?
- B: No, it didn't. She walked for ten days before she found a hut with some people in it.
