

1 Complete the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: ?
- B: Four. I speak English, French, Spanish and German.
- A: Wow! That's amazing! best?
- B: English, of course. It's my native language. Then Spanish.
- A: your French?
- B: Yes, my Spanish is more fluent than my French. I think the Spanish pronunciation and the grammar French.
- A: What about your German? fluently?
- B: No, my spoken German my French. I think German language of the four.

2 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Which city / you like best, London or Cambridge?
.....
- B: Well, London / be / a very noisy city. Cambridge is / quiet.
.....
- A: But there / not / many things to do / Cambridge, so life / be / boring there.
.....
- B: Yes, London / be / exciting. But I think / people / Cambridge / be / friendly.
.....
- A: That / true. It / be / easier to make friends / Cambridge.
.....
- B: And Cambridge / be / very beautiful – / beautiful / parts of London.
.....

3 Complete the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: in the English language, Professor?
- B: We don't really know, but probably over one million words.
- A: Is this number ?
- B: Yes, there are about 25,000 new words a year in the English language.
- A: ?
- B: It depends on the person's education, but most people have an active vocabulary of around 50,000 words.
- A: the English language?
- B: The letter E is very common, but it isn't the most interesting letter.
- A: and ?
- B: The letter X. Because it has 10 different meanings.

4 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: you / speak / Italian / fluently?
.....
- B: Yes, I do, but I / have / foreign accent / when / I / speak.
.....
- A: How long / take / learn Italian?
.....
- B: I / start / ten years ago, and I / still / learn. You never stop learning a language.
.....
- A: you / often / have to / look up / words / dictionary?
.....
- B: No, I / usually / guess / meaning / new word.
.....
- A: you / ever / translate / English?
.....
- B: Not really. I / try / think / Italian / when / I / speak.
.....