

1 Complete the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Have you ever flown in a plane?
 B: Yes, I have. I flew to London last year.
 a car?
 A: No, I haven't. in the North Sea?
 B: No, I haven't. It's too cold.
 in an Indian restaurant?
 A: Yes, I have. We ate in one in Amsterdam.
 to Amsterdam?
 B: No, I haven't. to an American?
 A: Yes, I have. I met an American girl a month ago. money for charity?
 B: Yes, I in a fun run for charity last year.

2 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Where / your brother?

 B: He / do / his homework / his bedroom. He / take / an important exam tomorrow.

 A: What / your mother / do / ?

 B: She / make / the dinner in the kitchen.

 A: Where / your father?

 B: He / do / the housework. I think he / clean / the bathroom / the moment.

 A: That / funny. I can see him / read / the newspaper / the garden.

 B: Really? Maybe he / take / break.

3 Complete the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: read the Guinness Book of World Records?
 B: No, I haven't. Why?
 A: My New Year's resolution is to get my name in the book.
 B: What world record ?
 A: I don't know if I break a world record or a new world record.
 B: a new world record for telling the worst jokes?
 A: Very funny! what, I think the world record for eating ice cream.
 B: Can you ? Ice cream costs money. I saving tomorrow.

4 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: What time / you / to bed / the week?

 B: / about 11 o'clock.

 A: / you / go / sleep immediately?

 B: No, I usually / read / bed / about 30 minutes.

 A: / you / ever / be / awake all night?

 B: Yes, but only once.
 A: What / you / do?

 B: I / study / all night. I / have / important exam the next morning.

