- A: We'd like a hotel room for three people, please.
- B: I'm very sorry, but you won't find a hotel in Granada at the moment. There are too many tourists and so they're all full.
- A: Oh no! What are we going to do? We're going to visit the Alhambra tomorrow.
- B: You'll have to find a hotel outside Granada. Why don't you stay in a cave in Guadix?
- A: Are you joking? We can't sleep in a cave.
- B: The caves in Guadix aren't primitive. You'll find everything you need. Some of them are very luxurious.
- A: Do they have electricity and hot water?
- B: Yes, some even have a broadband connection and a swimming pool, and you won't be too hot at night because the temperatures inside are perfect.
- A: Is it quiet there?
- B: Oh yes, it's very peaceful. There's too much noise here in Granada, but in Guadix you'll sleep very well.

2

- A: Where do you live?
- B: We live in a semi-detached house in a village. What about you?
- A: We live on the fifth floor of a block of flats in the centre of town. How long have you lived in a village?
- B: We've lived there for two years. We moved there in 2010.
- A: Are you happy there?
- B: Yes, we've got a big garden and that's wonderful in the summer, but there isn't enough to do in the evenings.
- A: You're lucky! We haven't got enough space, and there's too much traffic in the centre of town.
- B: What's living on the fifth floor like?
- A: Well, there are too many stairs, but we've got a good view over the city.

3

- A: Where are you going for your holidays?
- B: I'm going to England.
- A: What are you going to do there?
- B: I'm going to stay with an English family in Stratford-upon-Avon.
- A: Shakespeare was born there, wasn't he?
- B: Yes, that's right. The family are going to take me to see his house. We'll probably go to the theatre as well.
- A: Are you going with a friend?
- B: No, I'm going alone. I think I'll learn more English if I go alone.
- A: Will you have your own room?
- B: Yes, but I won't have my own bathroom. I'll send you a postcard and tell you what it's like.

4

- A: Let's have a game of tennis.
- B: No, there's no point in you playing with me. I'm too slow.
- A: Oh, come on! There's nothing wrong with you. You're just lazy.
- B: I always lose because I can't hit the ball over the net.
- A: Why don't we book a court and I'll teach you how to serve.
- B: Oh, man. Thanks! I'll look for my racket. I don't believe it. I can't find it.
- A: It's not surprising. Your room is so untidy. Your things are all over the place.
- B: So what? I always find my things really quickly.
- A: Always? If you say so!
