

1 Follow the prompts and write the dialogue in your notebook. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Asks if the doctor has arrived.
B: Says she arrived fifteen minutes ago.
A: Asks if B has been waiting long.
B: Says he/she's been waiting for half an hour.
A: Asks if B has seen this doctor before.
B: Says yes, she's been working here for five years. Asks if B has never met her.
A: Says he/she's new here. He/She's been living in the area for two months.
B: Says A will like the doctor. Says B looks tired and asks if he/she's OK.
A: Says he/she hasn't been feeling very well this week. He/She thinks it's stress.
B: Asks if B's teachers been giving B too much homework.

2 Write the dialogue in your notebook. Change words where necessary. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: How long / your brother / play / a band?
B: For two years.
A: They / make / CDs / yet?
B: Yes, they / make / three.
A: Where / he now? / he on tour?
B: Yes, they / tour / Germany / three weeks.
A: How many concerts / they / play in?
B: About ten, I think.
A: What about you? You / play / musical instrument?
B: Yes, I / play / trumpet / I was twelve, but I / not very good / it.

3 Follow the prompts and write the dialogue in your notebook. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Asks what kind of music B listens to.
B: All kinds, but recently I / listening / a lot of soul.
A: Asks if B has bought any CDs in the last month.
B: Yes, one by Adele.
A: Asks how long B has been listening to her?
B: Says he/she discovered her a year ago. She's only / famous / a few years.
A: Asks how many CDs she has made.
B: Two, I think. What about you? What do you listen to?
A: Well, I / interested / jazz. I / learning to play / saxophone / a year now, and I'd like to join a band.
B: Cool! You / ever go / jazz concerts?
A: Yes, I / been / five in the last year.

4 Write the dialogue in your notebook. Change words where necessary. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: I / love / play / musical instrument, but I / not think / got / talent.
B: What instrument would you like to play?
A: I / always / want / learn / guitar.
B: Well, you can learn a lot from videos on the Internet.
A: The Internet? You / kid / me?
B: No, there / loads / sites that teach / how / play. Check / out.
A: Don't you think it's better to have lessons with a teacher?
B: Probably. I / just / say that you / not have to / have / teacher.
A: I think I'll ask my parents to buy me a guitar. But I haven't got a good voice.
B: That / got / nothing / do with it. You can play the guitar well and not have a good voice.