

1 Follow the prompts and write the dialogue in your notebook. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Says he/she feels terrible.
B: Is surprised and asks what the matter is.
A: I / got / stomach ache / temperature.
B: Asks how long A has felt like this?
A: Yesterday. Ate some meat / wasn't very well cooked.
B: Says it might be food poisoning. Asks if B feels sick.
A: Yes, I do. I've got a headache as well.
B: Asks if B has taken anything.
A: I / taken / for the stomach ache, but it still hurts.
B: Advises A to see a doctor.

2 Write the dialogue in your notebook. Change words where necessary. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: What / you / like when you were a teenager, Dad?
B: I / used to / listen / music on my Walkman all the time.
A: What's a Walkman?
B: It / portable cassette player. I / used to / take / everywhere with me.
A: What / you / use to / listen?
B: I listened to Led Zeppelin and Black Sabbath.
A: Who / Led Zeppelin?
B: They / English rock band / used to be famous / the 1970s.
A: Where did you go when you went out?
B: I / not use to / go out much, but once a week / I / go / place / young people / used to play games together. It was the local youth club.

3 Follow the prompts and write the dialogue in your notebook. Change words where necessary. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Asks B what he/she learnt about Joseph Lister last week.
B: He / Scottish doctor / started to use antiseptics at work.
A: Asks where he worked.
B: He used / work / hospitals / everything was really dirty.
A: I bet doctors / not use to / wash / hands in those days.
B: No, and they / not wash the medical instruments that they used for operations.
B: Asks if a lot of patients regularly died in hospital.
A: Yes, about 50% of patients used to die after operations.
B: Asks how many patients regularly died after he invented antiseptics.
A: Only 15%.

4 Write the dialogue in your notebook. Change words where necessary. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: What / you / want / do in the future?
B: I want / be / doctor and work / Médecins Sans Frontières.
A: What's that?
B: It / organization / help / people all over the world.
A: What kind / people / they / help?
B: They help people / need medical help. They work in places / there / war or / natural disaster.
A: The doctors / earn a lot of money?
B: No, they're volunteers.
A: You know anyone / work / Médecins Sans Frontières?
B: Yes, I have / friend / school / father / work / them.