

1 Follow the prompts and write the dialogue in your notebook. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Says that he/she saw Emma yesterday.
B: Asks what she said.
A: She said / she / going / the USA for six months.
B: Did she tell you what she / going / do there?
A: Yes, she said she wanted / get / part-time job / restaurant / New York.
B: Last time I saw her brother, he told me that Emma / had / bad accident.
A: Was she badly hurt?
B: He said that she / spent / time / hospital but that she was back to normal.
A: She didn't tell me about the accident. She said that she / write / me from New York.
B: Great! She might invite you to visit when she finds somewhere to live.

2 Write the dialogue in your notebook. Change words where necessary. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: How / camping holiday / go?
B: Well, the accommodation / very comfortable – big modern tents with kitchens.
A: Fantastic! And what about the entertainment on the campsite?
B: That was terrible! The bands / awful, and the comedians / not funny at all.
A: Didn't the advertisement say / the shows / all first class?
B: Yes, it did. It / so bad that one family want / leave early, but the campsite managers told them / they / not accept cancellations.
A: Did the family stay?
B: Yes, but they said / they / never go back / that campsite.
A: What about the outdoor activities?
B: They / brilliant. The campsite had all the equipment for every sport in the area. That / best thing / holiday.

3 Follow the prompts and write the dialogue in your notebook. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Hi there! Asks what B has been doing recently.
B: Well, it was my birthday yesterday.
A: Really? If I / known it was your birthday, I / called you yesterday. Did you have a party?
B: No, I couldn't have a party in the middle of the week. If it / been a Saturday, I / had a party.
A: And you / invited me, of course.
B: Of course. And what / you / got me as a present?
A: If I / not already spent all my money, I would / given you a new pair of trainers.
B: Thanks A with irony. That's a very nice thought. I / remind you in time next year.
A: Yes, tell me six months in advance.
B: Sometimes I wonder what I / done if I / not met you.

4 Follow the prompts and write the dialogue in your notebook. Change words where necessary. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Asks if he/she can have a word with B.
B: Sure. What about?
A: Well, it's just that I / really stressed out / exams. I can't sleep any more.
B: I / nervous / the exams too, but surely there / more important things in life.
A: Probably, but I / not study enough. I think I might fail them.
B: If we / study more, we / not have / so much fun this year.
A: That's true. My parents told me that they / take me / visit Paris if I / do well.
B: My mum said that she / be / very angry if I / not pass.
A: Parents always say things like that. Let's go for a walk.
B: It / help / relax.