

- 1 A: Do you think you're a loyal friend.
B: Yes, I am. I've never let a friend down.
A: What do you mean?
B: Well, for example, if I say I'll do something with a friend, I always do it.
A: Would you lie for a friend?
B: It depends on the situation. Give me an example.
A: If a friend asked you to tell his/her parents that he/she was with you when he/she wasn't, would you do it?
B: I'm not sure. I think I would talk to the friend about his/her reasons for lying.
A: But would you tell on a friend if you knew he/she'd done something wrong?
B: No, I wouldn't.
A: I think you're a loyal friend then.

- 2 A: Why were you late this morning?
B: Because I saw an accident while I was walking to school.
A: What happened?
B: A car hit a man as he was crossing the road.
A: Was he badly hurt?
B: Yes, there was blood all over the road.
A: What did you do?
B: As soon as I saw the accident, I phoned for an ambulance.
A: Did you wait for the ambulance to arrive?
B: Yes. While we were waiting, I talked to the man. I realized that I had seen him before in a shop.

- 3 A: Who is your oldest friend?
B: I've got a very close friend called Kate.
A: Where did you meet?
B: We met at a birthday party.
A: What was your first impression of her?
B: I thought she looked really nice and friendly.
A: Why did you become friends?
B: We started talking about music and we hit it off immediately. We found out that we liked the same bands.
A: How long have you known each other now?
B: We've been friends for five years.
A: What do you like about her?
B: I like her sense of humour, and she's a really loyal friend. I think we'll be friends for ever.

- 4 A: How did your parents meet?
B: My mother was working for a dentist, and one day my father came to see the dentist. He had fallen off his bicycle and broken a tooth.
A: Did she like him as soon as she saw him?
B: Yes, but she didn't think he had noticed her.
A: How did they make friends?
B: As soon as my father had left, my mother found a message next to her computer.
A: What did the message say?
B: It said 'Phone me later'.
A: How long did they go out together before they got married?
B: A long time. My father was studying law at the time, and so he didn't have any money to get married.
A: That's a nice story!
