

1 A and B are talking about friendship. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: Ask B if he/she is a loyal friend.
B: Say yes. Say you've never let a friend down.
A: Ask B to give more details.
B: Give details.
A: Ask if B would lie for a friend.
B: Say it depends on the situation. Ask for more details.
A: Give an example.
B: Say you're not sure. You would discuss the friend's reasons with the friend.
A: Ask if B would tell on a friend.
B: Says you wouldn't.
End the dialogue in a suitable way.

2 A and B are talking. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: Why / you / late this morning?
B: Because I / see / accident / while / I / walk to school.
A: What / happen?
B: A car / hit / man / as / he / cross / the road.
A: He / badly hurt?
B: Yes, there / blood / all over the road.
A: What / you / do?
B: As soon as / I / see / accident, I / phone / ambulance.
A: You / wait / ambulance / arrive?
B: Yes. While / we / wait /, I / talk / man. I / realize / I / see him / before / shop.

3 Imagine you are writing an article about making friends. You are interviewing someone for your school magazine. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: Ask who B's oldest friend is.
B: Give details.
A: Ask where they met.
B: Give details.
A: Ask what B's first impression of him/her was.
B: Give details.
A: Ask why they became friends.
B: Say what they talked about.
A: Ask how long they have known each other now.
B: Give details.
A: Ask what B likes about him/her.
B: Give details.
End the dialogue in a suitable way.

4 A and B are talking. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: How / your parents / meet?
B: My mother / work / dentist, and one day my father / come / see / dentist. He / fall off / bicycle and break / tooth.
A: She / like / him / as soon as / she / see him?
B: Yes, but she / not think / he / notice her.
A: How / they / make friends?
B: As soon as my father / leave, my mother / find / message next to / computer.
A: What / message / say?
B: It / say / 'Phone me later'.
A: How long / they / go out together before they / get married?
B: A long time. My father / study law / at the time, and so he / not have / money / get married.