

1 Imagine you are writing an article about doing part-time jobs. You are interviewing someone for your school magazine. Follow the prompts to write the dialogue.

- A: Ask B what part-time job he/she does.
B: Give details.
A: Ask how long B has been doing that job.
B: Give details.
A: Ask if B likes it.
B: Give details.
A: Ask if B has learnt anything new doing the job.
B: Give details.
A: Ask what B thinks he/she'll do in the future.
B: Give details.
End the dialogue in a suitable way.

2 A and B are talking. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: How / your part-time job / go?
B: It / go / really well. It / a bit exhausting, but I love it.
A: How long / you / do / now?
B: I / do / it / I finish / my exams last June.
A: How many hours / you / do / week?
B: Only six. I work Friday and Saturday evenings.
A: You / meet / a lot of new people?
B: Yes, I have. That's the best thing about it. I have / good time / other people / work there, and I love / talk / customers.
A: The job / teach / you / new about yourself?
B: Yes, I / think / I / be shy, but in actual fact I / discover / I find it easy / get on with people / make friends.
A: That's great!

3 A teenager has a job interview next week. He asks his mother for some advice.

- A: Ask what she thinks you should wear to the interview.
B: Give details. Advise him/her to go to the hairdresser's.
A: Ask her how she thinks you should behave.
B: Give details.
A: Ask if she has any other advice.
B: Advise him/her not to be late, but to get there early.
A: Ask her if you should ask about the pay.
B: Give details.
A: Ask if she advises you to prepare your answers before the interview.
B: Say it's a good idea to anticipate the questions.
End the dialogue in a suitable way.

4 A and B are talking. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: How / you / hear about / job? You / see / advertisement / the Gazette?
B: No, a friend / tell / about it. He / employee / this company.
A: What / you / do / at the moment?
B: I / be / unemployed / last six months, but during that time I / do / course in IT.
A: Have / you / qualifications?
B: I / have / school diploma.
A: What / you / do in your last job?
B: I / design / websites. I think I / really good / graphic design.
A: I / afraid / salary for this post / not be / very high. We / look for / trainee.
B: That's alright. I really want / get / experience at the moment, so I accept that.