

1 A and B are talking about the future. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: Ask B if he/she would like to live to the age of 200.

B: Say only if you stay healthy.

A: Say it will be possible and how.

B: Express doubts about food and energy resources.

A: Give answer.

B: Ask about clean water.

A: Give answer.

B: Ask if people will get bored.

A: Give answer.

End the dialogue in a suitable way.

2 A girl is talking to her mother. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: What / you / do this evening?

B: I / not sure, but we might / go out / pizza.

A: Who / go / with?

B: Susan and Kate. Sophie / probably / come as well, but she / have to / ask her parents first.

A: She / probably / not come then. She / argue / with her mother a lot recently.

B: You / think / we / book?

A: Yes, the pizzeria / likely / be very busy / Friday night. You probably / not get in / unless / book.

B: it / might / be too late?

A: It might. What time / you / likely / be home?

B: We / not likely / be late. I / probably / be back by 11 o'clock.

3 A and B are talking about longevity. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: Ask B what the secret of a long life is.

B: Talk about the negative effects of worrying.

A: Ask B if he/she thinks friends and family are important.

B: Confirm. Give details.

A: Say you think a healthy lifestyle is very important.

B: Agree. Illustrate the point.

A: Talk about mental exercise.

B: Agree. Talk about sleep.

A: Say how long your parents live is important.

End the dialogue in a suitable way.

4 A and B are going to a concert together. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: What time / we / leave?

B: I think it / take / hour / get there, so if we want to be on time, we / ought / leave by 7pm.

A: There / likely / be / a lot of traffic?

B: Yes, it / rush hour / until 7.30.

A: It / be quieter / a Saturday.

B: There / likely / be / a lot of shoppers on the roads. It / be / very stressful / unless / we / allow plenty of time.

A: OK. Call me when you / ready to go.

B: I / be ready / as soon as / I / have / shower.

A: I / already / have / shower, so I / read / until / you / ready.

B: Alright.