

1 A and B are talking about an American reality show. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: Ask if B has ever heard of the US TV show The Amazing Race.

B: Say you haven't. Ask what kind of show it is.

A: Give details.

B: Ask what the contestants have to do.

A: Give details.

B: Ask about the kinds of tasks they have to complete.

A: Give details.

B: Ask what's different about it.

A: Give details.

B: Ask what makes the show successful.

A: Give details.

End the dialogue in a suitable way.

2 A and B are talking. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: What / your parents / like? / they / strict?

B: Yes, they / not let / stay out late during the week.

A: What time / you / have to be home?

B: I / not allowed / be out after nine o'clock.

A: They / make / do housework?

B: Yes, I / have to / make my bed / tidy my bedroom.

A: They / let / listen / music in your bedroom?

B: Yes, I / listen / anything I want to, but I / not have / volume up high.

A: My parents / make / use headphones when I listen to music.

B: My parents / make / do my homework before they let / watch TV.

3 A and B are talking about B's holiday. They use a lot of extreme adjectives and modifiers. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: Ask if B had a good holiday.

B: Confirm enthusiastically.

A: Ask B to tell you about New York.

B: Say it's very big and the museums and art galleries are very interesting.

A: Ask if B did a lot of different things.

B: Yes, we were out all day. Say you were very tired in the evenings.

A: Ask if B saw any theatre.

B: We saw one comedy. Say it was very funny.

A: Ask if the weather was cold.

B: Cold? It was about minus 5°C most days! Say it was very cold.

End the dialogue in a suitable way.

4 A and B are talking about being famous. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: You / like / be / famous?

B: Of course. All / teenagers / want / be famous.

A: I / not agree. I think it / be terrible / be famous.

B: I think it / be fantastic if you / famous / do something really well.

A: But everyone / know everything / your life.

B: Yes, that / be hard. But most / the teenagers I know / like / be famous / short time.

A: But you / not / think / become / famous / easy. You have to work really hard.

B: It depends. Some / people / get famous overnight.

A: Yes, but they / not stay famous / very long. After six months everyone / forget / them.

B: They / probably / make / a lot of money in the meantime.