

1 A and B are talking about computer games. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: Ask B what his/her favourite computer game is.

B: Give details.

A: Ask if it's a new game.

B: Give details.

A: Ask B what he/she likes about it.

B: Give details.

A: Ask what the story is.

B: Give details.

A: Ask what features B likes best.

B: Give details.

End the dialogue in a suitable way.

2 A and B are talking. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: What / you / feel like / do / after school?

B: I / like / go / cinema. You / want / come with me?

A: I / not afford / go / cinema.

B: I / buy / ticket / if you promise / lend / your scooter tomorrow.

A: OK. I / not mind / lend / my scooter.

B: Thanks. Remember / give me the key after the cinema.

A: Can we go to the 6.30 showing? I / like / avoid / see / my ex-girlfriend at the cinema.

B: You / not stop / think about her yet?

A: No, but I hope / stop soon!

3 A and B are talking about the advantages and disadvantages of fast food. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

A: Ask B if he/she thinks that eating fast food is a good or bad idea.

B: Say there are advantages and disadvantages.

A: Ask what the greatest advantage is.

B: Give details.

A: Ask if there are any other advantages.

B: Give details.

A: Ask about the disadvantages.

B: Give details.

A: Ask if B ever eats fast food.

B: Give details.

End the dialogue in a suitable way.

4 A and B are playing a game to practise noun suffixes. Complete the gaps.

A: The game and the film are different.

B: What's the between them? Some desserts take time to prepare.

A: They require a lot of I prefer volleyball to football.

B: I don't have a I find action films very entertaining.

A: They're a great form of My sister is a very kind person.

B: Everyone notices her We haven't agreed on the price yet,

A: But we're trying to reach an I like to imagine the characters.

B: I love using my That computer game is very popular.

A: I'm surprised at its She can't spell.

B: Her is terrible. The actor first appeared in a horror film.

A: His first was in a horror film.