

1 A and B are talking A's performance in a race. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: Say you are cross with yourself. You didn't train enough and so you didn't win.
- B: Say second place is fine.
- A: Say you're sorry you didn't win.
- B: Give advice.
- A: You wanted to impress your new girlfriend, but you didn't win.
- B: Give advice.
- A: Say you're worried that your girlfriend might leave you.
- B: Give advice.
- A: Say you're better-looking than the winner.
- B: Give advice.
- End the dialogue in a suitable way.

2 A is talking to his/her father. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: Why / you / so cross with me?
- B: Because you / not do / best / school. You / be / so lazy.
- A: I / not be / very good at school. Why / you / always lose your temper with me?
- B: Because I / be / like you when I / be / your age, and now I regret it.
- A: What / you regret?
- B: If I / try harder and study more, I / get a better job.
- A: But you / meet / Mum at work. If you / have a different job, you / not meet her.
- B: And if I not meet / her, you / not be born.
- A: That's right. You / wish / I / not be born?
- B: No, I just wish you / be / more interested in school.

3 A is complaining about his little sister, and B is giving advice. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: Say you are sorry you bit your little sister's head off last night.
- B: Ask what happened.
- A: Give details.
- B: Advise A to apologise to her.
- A: Say you often lose your temper with her.
- B: Advise A to learn to keep his/her cool.
- A: Say you sometimes regret having a little sister.
- B: Respond.
- A: Tell B about something bad your sister did last week.
- B: Criticise her for doing that.
- End the dialogue in a suitable way.

4 A is asking his grandmother about her life. Write the dialogue. Follow the prompts.

- A: You / be / happy with your past?
- B: Yes, but I wish / I / study more.
- A: You / not go / university?
- B: No, I / have / my first child when I / be / 18. If only I / wait.
- A: You / ever / have a job?
- B: No, but I wish / I / have. If I / work /, I / make friends at work.
- A: You / be / poor?
- B: We certainly / not be / rich. We / should not / have four children.
- A: You / have / a really great voice, not / you? You should / go / music school.
- B: Yes, I / be a famous opera singer!