

1 A and B are talking about chessboxing. Follow the prompts to write the dialogue.

- A: Ask B if he/she has ever heard of chessboxing.
 B: Say no and ask what it is.
 A: Give details.
 B: Ask what they do with their boxing gloves for the rounds of chess.
 A: Give details.
 B: Ask how many rounds there are altogether.
 A: Give details.
 B: Ask how you can win.
 A: Give details.
 B: Ask why people do it.
 End the dialogue in a suitable way.

2 Complete the dialogues with the correct relative pronoun (omit it if it can be omitted), and then read it aloud with a partner.

- A: What do you call the sport people play with rackets and balls?
 B: Is the area they play called a court?
 A: That's right.
 B: And are the main tournaments, take place in Wimbledon, France, Australia and the United States, called Grand Slams?
 A: That's right. I think you know the answer!
 B: Yes, tennis. I really like watching Wimbledon, the players still play on grass.
 A: Did you watch the women's singles final last year? Petra Kvitová, left-handed serves are amazing, beat Maria Sharapova.
 B: Yes, I did. It was the first time Kvitová had won Wimbledon.
 A: The winners of both the men's singles and the women's singles were new, is really unusual.
 B: And great players like the Williams sisters, have won the titles many times, were knocked out quite early.

3 A and B are talking about unusual sports. Write the dialogue in your notebook. Follow the prompts.

- A: Ask B what extreme ironing is.
 B: Give details.
 A: Ask if it is dangerous.
 B: Say yes and tell A why.
 A: Ask B to give examples of places where it has taken place.
 B: Give examples.
 A: Ask B if he/she thinks it is really a sport.
 B: Give opinion.
 A: Ask B if he/she knows any other unusual sports.
 B: Say yes and give details.
 End the dialogue in a suitable way.

4 A and B are testing each other on sports vocabulary. Complete the dialogue and then read it aloud with a partner.

- A: What / call the people / watch / sports match?
 B: Give answer. What / call / the final result / sports match?
 A: Give answer. What / call it when / teams or players / have / same number of points?
 B: Give answer. What / a sportsperson / wear on his/her head for protection?
 A: Give answer. What / call / person / send / players off / a football match?
 B: Give answer. What / call / thing the players use to hit / ball / baseball and cricket?
 A: Give answer. What / swimmers wear over their eyes?
 B: Give answer. What / the players hit the ball over in tennis?
 A: Give answer. What / call the area / you play football?
 B: Give two possible answers.