

1 A and B are talking about Celebrity Ambassadors. Follow the prompts to write the dialogue.

- A: Ask B to tell you what he/she knows about the United Nations.
 B: Give details.
 A: Ask B to tell you what UNICEF does.
 B: Give details. Ask A to tell you what UNHCR does.
 A: Give details.
 B: Ask A to explain what a Goodwill Ambassador is.
 A: Give details. Ask B to give you some examples of celebrities who have become Goodwill Ambassadors.
 B: Give details. Ask A how UNICEF chooses its ambassadors.
 A: Give details.
 End the dialogue in a suitable way.

2 Follow the prompts to write the dialogue, using reduced relative clauses where possible. Then practice reading it aloud with a partner.

- A: Can you think of a Chinese pianist / a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador / the age of 23?
 B: Yes. Lang Lang, / regard / by many / the most exciting pianist alive, / represent / UNICEF / several years.
 A: Name the UN agency / most represent / by the stars.
 B: UNICEF / use / lots of celebrities over the years.
 A: Can you think of a famous actress / work / for UNHCR?
 B: Yes. Angelina Jolie, / think / by many / be / the most beautiful woman / the world /, be / well-known for her humanitarian work.
 A: Name a famous English pop singer / use / by UNICEF even though he / not be / a Goodwill Ambassador?
 B: Robbie Williams / give / several concerts for UNICEF.
 A: Can you think of an internationally famous footballer / involve / children's issues?
 B: Yes, Lionel Messi / become / a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador / in 2010.

3 A and B are expressing their opinions, agreeing and disagreeing. Follow the prompts to write the dialogue.

- A: Ask B if he/she thinks it is acceptable for pop stars and film stars to get involved in politics.
 B: Express your opinion.
 A: Agree or disagree and say why.
 B: Ask A if he/she thinks that mobile phones on public transport should be banned.
 A: Express your opinion.
 B: Agree or disagree and say why.
 A: Ask if he/she thinks it is acceptable to download music and films from the internet for free.
 B: Express your opinion.
 A: Agree or disagree and say why.
 End the dialogue in a suitable way.

4 A and B are practising using question tags. Complete the dialogue by adding the correct tag, then practise reading it aloud with a partner.

- A: Angeline Jolie must earn a lot of money,?
 B: Yes, but she gives some of it to charities,?
 A: She isn't a very good actress though,?
 B: If you ask me she's excellent. And she's won a lot of awards,?
 A: Yes, I suppose so. She wasn't bad in Changeling,?
 B: As far as I'm concerned, she was excellent. And she isn't bad-looking,?
 A: No. Some people think she's the most beautiful woman on the planet,?
 B: Yes. She used to work as a model,?
 A: Yes, she did. She didn't have a very happy adolescence,?
 B: No, she suffered from depression. She was blamed for the end of Brad Pitt's marriage,?
 A: Yes, but she's had three children with him since then,?
 B: They'll probably get married one day,?
 A: It doesn't really matter either way.