

1 Students' own answers

- 2 A: What do you call the sport (that) people play with rackets and balls?
B: Is the area where they play called a court?
A: That's right.
B: And are the main tournaments, which take place in Wimbledon, France, Australia and the United States, called Grand Slams?
A: That's right. I think you know the answer!
B: Yes, tennis. I really like watching Wimbledon, where the players still play on grass.
A: Did you watch the women's singles final last year? Petra Kvitová, whose left-handed serves are amazing, beat Maria Sharapova.
B: Yes, I did. It was the first time (that) Kvitová had won Wimbledon.
A: The winners of both the men's singles and the women's singles were new, which is really unusual.
B: And great players like the Williams sisters, who have won the titles many times, were knocked out quite early.

3 Students' own answers

- 4 A: What do you call the people who watch a sports match?
B: Spectators. What do you call the final result of a sports match?
A: The score. What do you call it when the teams or players have the same number of points?
B: A draw. What does a sportsperson wear on his/her head for protection?
A: A helmet. What do you call the person who sends players off during a football match?
B: The referee. What do you call the thing the players use to hit the ball in baseball and cricket?
A: The bat. What do swimmers wear over their eyes?
B: Goggles. What do the players hit the ball over in tennis?
A: The net. What do you call the area where you play football?
B: The pitch or the field.