- A: What did your class teacher say to you? Did he give you a hard time?
- B: He told me to start studying. He warned me that if I didn't, I'd fail the exams at the end of the year.
- A: Did he encourage you to work with other students?
- B: Yes, he suggested studying with my friends after school.
- A: But if you study together, your homework will be very similar.
- B: Yes, you're right. He also warned me not to be late for school any more.
- A: Did you promise to be on time in future?
- B: Yes. He recommended that I get up half an hour earlier.
- A: Did you tell him that you were upset about him shouting at you in class?
- B: Yes, he apologised for losing his temper with me.

- A: What was the yoga lesson like?
- B: At first I thought it was a bit of a waste of time. The teacher told us to lie on the floor, and for about five minutes we didn't do anything.
- A: Did you start daydreaming?
- B: No, the teacher said we had to avoid thinking about anything.
- A: Did she say why you were doing that?
- B: Yes, she said we couldn't relax if we didn't stop thinking about things.
- A: Was the rest of the lesson easy?
- B: Not at all. I didn't expect it to be so difficult.
- A: Did the teacher say that it would get easier?
- B: Yes. She also warned us that we would feel very stiff the next day.
- A: Why?
- B: She said that we had used muscles that we don't normally use.
