- 4
- A: Have you ever watched an English film in the original language?
- B: I tried to watch one last night, but I could only pick out a few words.
- A: I saw a Harry Potter film last week and I got the gist of what they said.
- B: What about songs in English. Can you understand them?
- A: No, they're usually totally incomprehensible.
- B: Sometimes I listen to interviews of pop stars on the internet and I can't make out anything at all.
- A: It's a bit depressing, because I've been studying English for years.
- B: Do you understand the English teacher when she speaks in class?
- A: Sometimes I only catch the drift.
- B: Yes, she loses me when she starts speaking quickly.
- A: If we don't get more listening practice, we'll never learn the language.
