2 A: Have you ever been for a ride on a motorbike?

B: Yes, I went on a motorbike trip round Spain with my dad last summer.

A: Really? How long did you go away for?

B: We were away two weeks. We set off on 1st August and got back on 16th.

A: How long did it take to get there?

B: It took us three days to get to the Spanish border, and then we rode around for about a week.

A: What was it like?

B: Getting on the bike on the first day, I felt a bit nervous. I thought I was making a big mistake.

A: Was it uncomfortable to sit there several hours a day?

B: No. Having done it for a couple of days, I started to really enjoy it. I needn't have worried because it was fun.

A: It sounds like a great adventure.

4 A: I heard the trip to London was a bit of a disaster!

B: It was nowhere near as good as last year's, but it wasn't a disaster. We had a few problems getting there.

A: What happened?

B: We got to the airport at 7am, but we needn't have bothered because the flight was delayed by three hours.

A: What time did you take off?

B: We didn't take off until 11.30am.

A: Did you go on a tour of the airport?

B: Yes. Walking around the shops, I spent a lot of money on books and CDs.

A: Did you have breakfast at the airport?

B: Yes, but luckily we didn't need to buy any food because we had brought sandwiches with us.

A: So that was a good start!
