

1 Students' own answers

3 Students' own answers

- 2
- A: Have you read the story about the man who faked his own death?
- B: Yes, he was arrested when he walked into a police station claiming to be suffering from amnesia.
- A: Did he and his wife admit to committing deception?
- B: Not immediately. His wife denied knowing he was still alive at first.
- A: And then when it was proved that she had seen him, she said that her husband had persuaded her to go along with his plans.
- B: What was amazing about it was that they'd even deceived their two sons.
- A: Yes, they confessed to having hidden the fraud from them.
- B: Do you think they apologized for having destroyed their sons' lives?
- A: I don't know. They must have been very strange people.

4 Students' own answers