

1 A and B are talking about inspiration and their ambitions. Follow the prompts to write the dialogue.

- A: Ask B in what ways he/she is creative.
 B: Give details. Ask A the same question.
 A: Give details. Ask B what things inspire him/her.
 B: Give details. Ask A the same question.
 A: Give details. Ask B what ambitions he/she has.
 B: Give details. Ask A the same question.
 A: Ask B how he/she is going to achieve his/her ambitions.
 B: Give details. Ask A the same question.
 A: Ask B if he/she has ever had his/her work criticised.
 B: Give details. Ask A the same question.
 A: Give details.

2 A and B are practising using metaphors. Follow the prompts to write the dialogue.

- A: When might you have butterflies in your stomach?
 B: Give details. What metaphor could you use to mean you're really hungry?
 A: Give details. If you're really happy about something, what could you say?
 B: Give details. What about if you're really tired and your feet hurt?
 A: Give details. What would you say if you're trying to do something but not making any progress?
 B: Give details. What could you say if something makes you really angry?
 A: Give details. If you're feeling under a lot of pressure and think you are going mad, what might you say?
 B: Give details. What could you say instead of saying you feel depressed?
 A: Give details. If you want to tell someone to keep calm, what could you say?
 B: Give details. Think of a metaphor that means you're really upset.
 A: Give details.

3 A and B are practising using the structure have something done. Follow the prompts to write the dialogue.

- A: I'd really like / have / nose / pierce.
 B: I took my motorbike to the mechanic / have / repair.
 A: I go to the hygienist every six months / have / teeth / clean.
 B: We can't use the kitchen at the moment because we / have / decorate.
 A: You / ever / have / photograph / take by a professional photographer?
 B: My brother's in hospital at the moment. He / have / appendix / take out.
 A: I hate / have / hair / cut.
 B: When we got back from holiday we discovered that we / have / our house / break into.
 A: My mother has lost her wallet. She / must / have / steal on the bus.
 B: They tried to disguise themselves by / have / hair / dye.

4 A and B are deciding on a name for their new rock band. Follow the prompts to write the dialogue.

- A: Tell B what the two options are.
 B: Say which one you don't like and express an opinion about it.
 A: Agree but introduce a contrasting idea.
 B: Say you prefer the other option.
 A: Disagree and soften your negative opinion.
 B: Make a completely new suggestion.
 A: Say something that isn't very relevant.
 B: Try to get the conversation back to the main topic.
 A: Say something positive about the second option.
 B: Agree and express a positive opinion about it.
 A: Agree.
 End the dialogue in a suitable way.