- A: Hi Nick! Where are you?
- B: I'm in Oxford. My uncle lives here.
- A: Really? Do you like Oxford?
- B: Yes, I do. It's a beautiful city. There's a very old university here, so there are a lot of old buildings.
- A: Are there any good shops?
- B: Yes, there are some great bookshops, and there's a really nice covered market too.
- A: What about night life?
- B: There aren't any good discos, unfortunately, but there's a wonderful concert at the theatre this evening.
- A: Great! I'm jealous!
- B: The only problem is there aren't any tickets left!

2

- A: What can I do in London next week?
- B: There are so many things to see and do. You can go on a tour of the city on an open-top bus.
- A: Good idea! What art galleries can I visit?
- B: Visit the Tate Modern. There's a fantastic collection of modern art. It's wonderful!
- A: Great! And what is there to do in the evening?
- B: You can try the food in Hard Rock Café.
- A: Thanks for the information.
- B: You're welcome.

3

- A: Where do you buy stamps in England?
- B: In a post office. What else can you do in a post office?
- A: You can send a parcel. What can you buy in a chemist?
- B: Shampoo, toothpaste, and medicine. What do you do in a library?
- A: You can read books and magazines. Where do you buy books?
- B: In a bookshop. Where do you buy newspapers and magazines?
- A: In a newsagent. Can you buy newspapers in a supermarket in England?
- B: Yes, you can. Where can you play football?
- A: In a park.

- A: Excuse me. Where's the railway station, please?
- B: Carry on down this street for about fifteen minutes.
- A: Fifty minutes!
- B: No, fifteen minutes. Then turn left into Station Road.
- A: Left. And is the station in Station Road?
- B: Yes, it is actually!
- A: Is it far?
- B: No, it isn't. It's about twenty minutes from here.
- A: Oh no! The train leaves in twenty-five minutes. We're late!
