- A: Hi. How are you?
- B: Not too well. I've got a Maths test tomorrow and I'm worried.
- A: Don't worry! It's only school work! Anyway, I've got football training now.
- B: OK. I hear your team is in the final.
- A: Yes, it's on Saturday. I'm really excited.
- B: I'd like to come and see you play, but it's my grandmother's birthday on Saturday.
- A: Do you like visiting your grandmother?
- B: No, I don't. It's really boring.
- A: Well, don't work too much. Bye!
- B: See you later.

2

- A: Hi, Susan. What's wrong?
- B: I'm really unhappy.
- A: Are you? Why?
- B: Because my boyfriend says he doesn't love me anymore.
- A: Oh no! Don't cry!
- B: I'm so upset! I still love him.
- A: I know. But don't phone him or write to him.
- B: Why not?
- A: Because it's too late. He's with someone else.

3

- A: This film's awful!
- B: Yes, it's really boring.
- A: What's that?
- B: What?
- A: That noise. There's something outside the house.
- B: Oh no! I'm scared!
- A: Stay here.
- B: No, don't go outside! Come back!
- A: Woooooh!
- B: Don't be stupid! Sometimes you do really stupid things.

- A: Angela looks great!
- B: Yes, she's got a new boyfriend. She's very happy.
- A: Is her new boyfriend's name Nick?
- B: No, that's her old boyfriend.
- A: Oh. I'm a bit confused now.
- B: Yes, she often changes boyfriends.
- A: I want to be like her.
- B: It's important to be yourself. Don't change!
- A: I'd like to have long blonde curly hair.
- B: Your hair looks very nice.
