

1

A: Who's that over there?

B: It's Rick Hoyt.

A: Why is he in a wheelchair?

B: Because he's got cerebral palsy.

A: Can he talk?

B: No, he can't.

A: How does he communicate with people?

B: He uses a computer.

A: Does he work?

B: Yes, he does. He has a job at the University of Boston.

2

A: Does your father like sport?

B: Yes, he loves it. He plays basketball and he takes part in marathons.

A: Marathons! Wow! Not bad for a dad! Does he ever win?

B: No, he doesn't. He isn't good enough to win.

A: How long does it take him to run a marathon?

B: It takes him about three and a half hours.

A: What about you? Do you like sport?

B: I like watching football on the TV.

A: What team do you support?

B: Manchester United.

3

A: Can you swim?

B: Yes, but I can't swim under water.

A: Can you ride a horse?

B: Yes, but not very well. My sister is very good at sports.

A: Can your sister walk on her hands?

B: No, she can't. She doesn't like doing gymnastics.

A: Does she like running?

B: Yes, she loves it.

A: Does she take part in competitions.

B: Yes, and she's really fast. She often wins.

4

A: How long can a camel live in the desert without water?

B: Six months. How far can a kangaroo hop in one go?

A: Ten metres. How many different colours can the human eye see?

B: Over one million. How long can a man live without food?

A: If he drinks water, between 30 and 40 days. How many people can speak Chinese?

B: Over one billion. How old is a child when it starts walking?

A: About one year old. What about you? How far can you walk in an hour?

B: About four kilometres. But I don't like walking.