

1 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: in a village?
- B: I love it. It London.
- A: Is your new house nice?
- B: Yes. London home.
For example, there are real fireplaces. In London we had central heating.
- A: How about your lifestyle?
bored?
- B: Well, of course life London.
There are more shops and cinemas there.
But I quite like the slow lifestyle here.
- A: So ?
- B: I miss my best friend. His jokes were funnier than anyone else's.

2 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: you / think life / be / good / than / when / you / be / girl, Grandma?
.....
- B: I / think / people / be / friendly / than / now.
Now people don't have enough time to be friendly.
.....
- A: But be / life / easy / than / now?
.....
- B: In some ways it was. I think life / be / relaxing
/ then. School / be / difficult / and / stressful
/ now / than / when / I / be / school.
.....
- A: you / have fun?
.....
- B: Yes, we / have / lots / fun, but we / not have / technology – no computers or mobile phones.
.....

3 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: Hi there! ?
- B: The exam results came out today.
- A: Oh dear. ?
- B: No, awful! I
Maths result.
- A: Really? I got 50% for Maths. ?
- B: No, a bit better, but I at Maths.
- A: ?
- B: No, not really hard. How about you?
..... ?
- A: Yes, I got 90% in English.
- B: ! You were always terrible at English!

4 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: I / have / accident yesterday, and / my fault.
.....
- B: What / happen / ?
.....
- A: I / my bike / the park, and I / a hurry, and there / a younger girl / a skateboard.
.....
- B: / she fall over?
.....
- A: Yes, she / , and she / start / to cry, but I / not / stop.
.....
- B: Well, / not / worry. She / alright.
.....
- A: What / you mean? How / you know?
.....
- B: / my little sister, Katy. Here she / now! You / buy / an ice cream.
.....