

1 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: Is that your brother?
 B: Yes,
 A: He's really cool. ?
 B: Sam. But I'm afraid he's married!
 A: Oh no! see him much?
 B: Yes, every weekend. We get on really well.
 A: the same things?
 B: Yes, We like playing video games together.
 A: What's name?
 B: Olivia. She's great fun too, but she's very jealous of him.

2 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: / your mother work?

 B: Yes, / She / help / my father with his business.

 A: / she very busy?

 B: Yes, / Sometimes she / get / home at 7pm.

 A: / your grandparents / help your parents?

 B: Well, my grandmother / often look / after us.

 A: she / live with you?

 B: No, / but she / live / in the same street.

 A: / your mother's mother?

 B: Yes, /

3 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: in the morning?
 B: It depends. At about 7am on a school day.
 you?
 A: I get up very early during the week and very late on Sundays.
 B: out on Saturday night?
 A: Yes, I go dancing with my sister and our friends?
 B: Does a boyfriend?
 A: His name's Jonathon.
 B: Do you like him?
 A: No, and me.
 He thinks I'm a baby.

4 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: How many cousins / you have, Matteo?

 B: Three, but I / not see / very much. / live in England. My aunt / English.

 A: Really? Where / they live?

 B: / live / Oxford.

 A: / they speak Italian?

 B: No, / But / study French at school.

 A: What / your uncle do in Oxford?

 B: He / work / a software company.

 A: / he like living in England?

 B: Yes, / But he / not like the English weather.
