

1 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: Hi Nick!
- B: I'm in Oxford. My uncle lives here.
- A: Really?
- B: Yes, I do. It's a beautiful city.
very old university here, so a lot of old buildings.
- A: any good shops?
- B: some great bookshops, and
..... a really nice covered market too.
- A: What about night life?
- B: good discos, unfortunately,
but wonderful concert at the theatre this evening.
- A: Great! I'm jealous!
- B: The only problem is tickets left!

2 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: What / I do / in London next week?
.....
- B: There / many things to see and do. You / go / a tour of the city / an open-top bus.
.....
.....
- A: Good idea! What art galleries / I / visit?
.....
- B: Visit the Tate Modern. There / a fantastic collection of modern art. / wonderful!
.....
.....
- A: Great! And what / to do in the evening?
.....
- B: You / try the food in Hard Rock Café.
.....
- A: Thanks for the information.
- B: You're welcome.

3 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: Where stamps in England?
- B: In a post office. What else post office?
- A: a parcel.
in a chemist?
- B: Shampoo, toothpaste, and medicine.
..... in a library?
- A: You can read and
..... buy books?
- B: In buy
newspapers and magazines?
- A: In newspapers in a supermarket in England?
- B: Yes, you can. football?
- A: In a park.

4 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Excuse me. Where / the railway station, please?
.....
- B: Carry on / this street / about fifteen minutes.
.....
- A: Fifty minutes!
.....
- B: No, fifteen minutes. Then / left / Station Road.
.....
- A: Left. And / the station / Station Road?
.....
- B: Yes, / actually!
.....
- A: / far?
.....
- B: No, / about twenty minutes / here.
.....
- A: Oh no! The train / leave / in twenty-five minutes. We / late!
.....