

1 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: pets?
 B: Yes, we two dogs.
 A: Really? I I prefer cats.
 B: like dogs?
 A: clean.
 B: Well, I love Our dogs
 beautiful brown eyes.
 A: My aunt a dog.
 noisy and it people.
 B: Our dogs, and they're very good with children.
 A: My aunt's dog children.
 B: any children?
 A: No, she

2 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: Why / you / live / the country?

 B: Because / like /

 A: / you / a nice house?

 B: Yes, and we / a lovely garden.

 A: / you / a big family?

 B: No, I / a brother and a sister, but my sister / not live / with us. She / live / in town with her best friend.

 A: Why / she / not / live with you?

 B: Because she / work / / a shop / the city centre and she / not / a car.

3 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: a game. I think of a person in our class, and you ask and guess it is.
 B: OK. hair?
 A: No, he
 B: He? Ah, so it's a boy! a nice smile?
 A: Yes, a lovely smile.
 But often!
 B: Polish?
 A: No, He Turkey.
 B: Turkish boys in our class!
 A: Yes perfect
 English, but he's from Istanbul.

4 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: So, / you want to work / the supermarket / weekends?

 B: Yes, /

 A: Good! / name?

 B: Kevin Wright.

 A: How / spell / surname?

 B: /

 A: Thanks. How old /, Kevin?

 B: / 16.

 A: / a mobile phone?

 B: Yes, of course. My number / 079 6888421.

 A: / repeat /, please?

 B: Yes, / 079 6888421.
