

1 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: My new pen friend lives on a small island near the west coast of France.
- B: Really? on the island?
- A: Well, in the winter there are only about three hundred people.
- B: to school?
- A: He goes to a secondary school in a town called La Rochelle.
- B: ?
- A: It's probably about 15 kilometres away. The ferry crossing takes about 30 minutes.
- B: in the morning?
- A: At seven o'clock during the week.
- B: ?
- A: The first lesson half past eight.

2 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: How often / you check your emails?
.....
- B: I check / every day.
.....
- A: / you / a lot of sport?
.....
- B: / swimming twice a week.
.....
- A: / your sister / swimming with you?
.....
- B: No, she / not like swimming. She sometimes / play / tennis.
.....
- A: / you watch a lot of films?
.....
- B: I hardly ever / to the cinema. My mother sometimes / watch / films on DVD.
.....
- A: So / you usually at home in the evenings?
.....
- B: Yes, but we always go out / Saturday night.
.....

3 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: TV?
- B: About three times a week.
- A: ?
- B: I love game shows, and there's a comedy I like on Wednesdays.
- A: Does your mother the news on TV?
- B: Yes, And she loves boring documentaries.
- A: ?
- B: He sports programmes.
- A: in your house?
- B: Two. There's one in the living room, and I've got one in my bedroom.

4 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: / time?
.....
- B: / half past seven.
.....
- A: What time / the film start?
.....
- B: / quarter to eight, I think.
.....
- A: / comedy?
.....
- B: Yes, / really funny.
.....
- A: / like some popcorn?
.....
- B: Yes, please. / we got any olives?
.....
- A: No, /. / order a pizza.
.....
- B: OK. / you / enough money?
.....
- A: / not / know. How much / a pizza cost?
.....