

1 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: over there?
 B: It's Rick Hoyt.
 A: wheelchair?
 B: Because he's got cerebral palsy.
 A: talk?
 B: No, he can't.
 A: with people?
 B: He uses a computer.
 A: ?
 B: Yes, he does. He has a job at the University of Boston.

2 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: / your father like sport?

 B: Yes, / loves /. He / basketball and / take part / marathons.

 A: Marathons! Wow! / he ever win?

 B: No, /. / not / good enough / win.

 A: How long / take him / run a marathon?

 B: / about three and a half hours.

 A: / you? / you like sport?

 B: / like watch / football on the TV.

 A: What team / you support?

 B: Manchester United.

3 Complete the dialogue, then act it out in pairs.

- A: ?
 B: Yes, but I under water.
 A: a horse?
 B: Yes, but My sister is very good at sports.
 A: walk on
 B: No, She doesn't like
 A: running?
 B: Yes, she loves it.
 A: in competitions.
 B: Yes, and she's really fast. She

4 Write the dialogue. Then act it out in pairs.

- A: How long / a camel / live in the desert without water?

 B: [Give answer] How far / a kangaroo hop in one go?

 A: [Give answer] How many different colours / the human eye / ?

 B: [Give answer] How long / a man / without food?

 A: [Give answer] How many people / Chinese?

 B: [Give answer] How old / a child when / start / walking?

 A: [Give answer] How far / you walk in an hour?

 B: [Give answer] But I / not / like walking!
