

- 1 What does get mean? Put the phrases in the box in the correct columns.

get impatient get home get an idea get wet get to school get the answer get angry get a present get back from work

arrive	become	receive
	get impatient

- 2 Complete the sentences with the correct form of the expressions from Exercise 1.

- Maya was getting impatient because I was taking a long time to get ready for the party.
- Can you help me? I can't to this question.
- When I, the first lesson was just starting.
- My little sister very this morning – she was shouting and screaming at everyone!
- It was a very long film so we late from the cinema.
- Wow, you're 16 today! Did you big from your parents?
- I have to cook the dinner because my mum and dad don't until late this evening.
- Inventors often by looking at things around them.
- Oh no, it's starting to rain – we're going to really

- 3 What are the inventions? Match them with definitions a–h.

- inswednerc iprews windscreen wipers h
- seedil gineen
- eokocr
- someu tarp
- lolerr takess
- meerto nolocrt
- gcehiwn mug
- shshdiware

- you keep it in your mouth for a long time
- it turns the TV on and off
- you can move fast on these
- it makes a lorry or car move
- you can catch a mouse with this
- you cook your food on it
- you can clean the dishes with this
- they clean the window on a car

- 4 Circle the correct words.

- The remote control is a really useful / similar invention – especially if you're lazy!
- Louis Braille invented a way for blind / company people to read and write.
- A Walkman is useful / similar to an MP3 player, because you can listen to music while you move.
- We did an interesting failure / experiment in our Chemistry class today.
- Why does the sun always blind / disappear behind the clouds?
- Mercedes is a very successful company / failure that makes cars.
- He is most famous for his painting, but Leonard da Vinci was also a great inventor / experiment.
- I tried to make bread but it was a complete similar / failure. It tasted horrible!