

1 Circle the correct words.

- It was a great party last night – I had / made a really good time!
- My uncle always has / makes us laugh – he knows so many good jokes.
- We had / made fun swimming and surfing on holiday last summer.
- The teacher told Toby off for making / having funny faces at Sara during the lesson.
- I felt really stupid when I fell over but we made / had a good laugh about it later.
- It's not kind to make / have fun of somebody just because they're different from you.
- When I started at this school I had / made friends quite easily.

2 Circle the correct words.

- Molly's always laughing – she's got a great sense of humour / laughter.
- You'll soon feel better if you remember to take your argument / medicine.
- Jack made a fool / joke of himself when he danced on the table in the restaurant.
- I knew my dad was annoyed because of the big frown / fool on his face.
- It's important to remember the end of the story if you want to tell a joke / humour.
- I'm fool / glad you did well in your exams – you worked really hard.
- I had a big laughter / argument with my parents because they wouldn't let me go out.

3 Read the definitions and write the words.

- a funny story joke.....
- a stupid person f.....
- the sound or act of laughing l.....
- something that makes you better when you're ill m.....
- happy about something g.....
- an angry discussion a.....
- the look on your face when you're annoyed f.....

4 Complete the dialogue with the expressions in the box.

Tell me about it As long as In other words
what's the point of come on know what

Laura: Hi, James. How did you do in the Maths test?

James: Terrible – I only got 40%. I mean, I studied pretty hard. But that was a really difficult test, wasn't it?

Laura: I know. ¹*Tell me about it.* I revised for three hours last night and I still only got 45%. I mean, ²..... studying for hours? It doesn't do much good.

Eve: Oh, ³..... Laura. You're not telling me that studying doesn't help.

Laura: Not really, no.

Eve: ⁴....., if you don't do any studying you'll get the same results?

James: You ⁵.....? I think I might try that for the next exam.

Eve: Well OK. ⁶..... you don't mind getting 20% next time!