

1 Complete the puzzle about body language.

Something you ...

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 do with your eyebrows when you're surprised. | 4 do when you agree with what someone is saying. |
| 2 do when you're interested in what someone is saying (2 words). | 5 do with your arms if you feel defensive. |
| 3 do if you're pleased to see someone. | 6 use instead of words. |

2 Circle the correct verbs.

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1 say / tell goodbye | 7 say / tell a good joke |
| 2 say / tell a lie | 8 say / tell a secret |
| 3 say / tell someone something | 9 say / tell something out loud |
| 4 say / tell the truth | 10 say / tell someone off |
| 5 say / tell something again | 11 say / tell the difference |
| 6 say / tell 'I love you' | 12 say / tell thank you |

3 Complete the sentences with the correct form of say or tell.

- I don't believe a word Danny says.
- This article tells that elephants can 'talk'.
- Excuse me, can you tell me where the library is?
- Did you say anything to Matt about the party?
- Something tells me it's going to be a good day.
- A: 'How old is Mr Cooke?'
B: 'I'd tell he's about 50.'
- Body language often tells us more about a person than words.

4 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

again the difference goodbye jokes lies off a secret the truth

- Sorry. I didn't get that. Can you say it again?
- You'll just have to tell her the truth, even if she gets angry.
- Kamal's so funny. He's really good at telling jokes.
- I can't tell the difference between the original and the copy.
- I've finished with Harry. He told me too many lies.
- Never tell Ian a secret, unless you want everyone to know.
- I told your little brother off for being rude.
- It's time to go, but I don't want to say goodbye.