

1 Circle the correct words.

- 1 If / When / Until I'm too tired, I won't go out.
- 2 I won't get married if / until / as soon as I'm at least 30.
- 3 I'll lend you the book until / as soon as / unless I've finished it.
- 4 You'll be late unless / as soon as / if you don't leave now.
- 5 I'll be sick unless / if / when you drive more slowly.
- 6 We won't start if / until / as soon as everyone's here.
- 7 Promise to phone me unless / until / when you get there.
- 8 I'll walk home unless / as soon as / until it's raining really hard.

2 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------|
| 1 Francesca always talks | ... b .. |
| 2 Black boots don't really go | |
| 3 Darren thought we were laughing | |
| 4 Relax! Stop worrying | |
| 5 Melissa's been arguing | |
| 6 Sam had ice cream and I went | |
-
- a about the little things.
 - b about her boyfriend.
 - c with her mother again.
 - d for the cheesecake.
 - e with a brown skirt.
 - f about his new haircut.

3 Complete the sentences with a verb from box A in the right form and a preposition from box B. You can use the prepositions more than once.

A argue chat ~~dream~~ have fun go round revise think

B about for with

- 1 Do you ever dream about leaving here one day?
- 2 I don't Jessica any more. We've fallen out.
- 3 I with my brother's mates yesterday. They're really nice.
- 4 I'm not going to the exam yet. I'll forget everything.
- 5 I can't stop what Jamie said. It really upset me.
- 6 Josie's been her mates for hours. What are they talking about?
- 7 I stopped going out with Tara because we everything.

4 Complete the text with about or with.

I haven't been getting on well with my brother recently. I used to have fun ¹ with him but now we just argue ² everything. This afternoon I was chatting ³ Zoe and he got really angry and asked why we were laughing ⁴ him. We hadn't even been talking ⁵ him! Then he said Zoe's top didn't go ⁶ her skirt and that she looked awful. He really upset her because she worries ⁷ what other people think. He's changed a lot since he started going round ⁸ a new group of people.