

1 Complete the sentences with the words in box.

account interest card currency
loan purchase economy

- The government is considering cutting interest rates.
- Good morning, I'd like to open an account, please.
- You can pay in cash or with a cash card.
- Would it be sensible if we had one currency for the entire world?
- Do you have a receipt that you can show me as proof of purchase, sir?
- Few people seem to understand exactly how an economy functions.

2 Circle the definition, a or b, that best explains the underlined words. Look at page 27 of the Student's Book to help you.

- She purchased an old car.
a bought b sold
- The economic situation is making life difficult for everyone.
a relating to the study of economics
b relating to trade, industry and money
- Take good care when taking out a loan.
a borrowing money b lending money
- The Euro is the currency in many countries in Europe.
a situation at the moment
b the money used in a particular place
- Well, you've got to earn a living somehow, my boy.
a save money
b do a job in order to make money
- Interest rates are set to go up by 0.5%.
a a percentage of money that is charged for money that is borrowed
b a percentage of money that is paid by government to the unemployed

3 Make adjectives from the nouns and verbs.

- fiction fictional
- reality realistic
- die dead
- impress impressive
- beauty beautiful
- trust trustworthy

4 Complete the dialogues with the adjectives in Exercise 3.

- A: So Alice goes into a fictional world when she falls down the rabbit hole. She goes to a place that doesn't exist. Is that right?
B: What do you think, Bill? Have you ever heard any rabbits complaining that they are going to late for something?
- A: If I were you, I wouldn't give Tim the responsibility for the project.
B: Why not?
A: I don't think he's realistic enough. You would never be sure that he would do the right thing.
- A: What did you think of Edinburgh? Did you have a good time there?
B: We had a great time, thanks. It's one of the most impressive cities I've ever seen.
- A: Did you watch the match?
B: I did. What an impressive performance from Djokovic! He's improved his play so much in the last couple of years.
- A: And in the last minute you find out that the main character's wife is dead.
B: Thanks, Clara. What's the point of me watching the film now you've told me how it ends?
- A: I loved Inception. It was impossible to tell what was realistic and what wasn't.
B: Really? I thought it was a bit boring, actually.