

- 1 Find seven verbs connected with animal sounds in the word search.

G C R O A K B
 R R O A R S L
 U R H I S S E
 N E E A T N A T R C Z U B T
 N M L C R O W
 B A R K C X K

- 2 Circle the definition, a or b, that best explains the underlined words. Look at page 49 of the Student's Book to help you.

- Sometimes, my brother is only able to communicate with me by grunting.
 a making a low noise in an unfriendly way
 b making a high-pitched noise in a friendly way
- He's always bleating on about his life.
 a being positive b complaining
- She crowds about every game of chess she wins.
 a boasts b is quiet
- Everyone in the audience was hissing at the singer.
 a expressing disapproval of b expressing agreement with
- My boss is always barking at people in the office.
 a talking quietly to b shouting at
- My friends roared with laughter when they saw my purple shoes.
 a laughed a lot b laughed a little bit

- 3 Match the parts of the sentences.

- | | |
|--------------------------|----------|
| 1 She's always | b |
| 2 He can't do anything | |
| 3 I wish the coach would | |
| 4 I don't like it | |
| 5 We roared with | |
| 6 Why does your father | |
- a just grunt all the time?
 b bleating on about her problems.
 c but croak at the moment. He's got a bad throat.
 d laughter from the beginning to the end of the film.
 e stop barking at us.
 f when audiences hiss at people on the stage.

- 4 Complete the sentences with the words and phrases in the box.

imminent a case in point tribute scarpered behaving erratically credited with

- Orson Welles' brilliant debut film Citizen Kane is often credited with having invented much of modern cinema.
- According to the weather forecast, a big storm is
- The kids when the police arrived.
- Pop stars from around the world are gathering in Hollywood to perform a concert in a to Whitney Houston.
- We're becoming more and more distrustful of politicians. The last general election was a Lots of people didn't even bother to vote.
- The police detained the man in the centre of town after he had been reported to have been